Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

---V---

Thursday afternoon, as we go to press, the traffic lights are out and MP's are on duty at most street intersections.

Added to the names of Grenada county men who have this week received honors for extraordinary valor in military service the name of Staff Sergeant Wilford R. Gaines, of Grenada, who received the Air Medal for more than 350 hours of combat service.

I expect I break every principle of journalism by placing the picture of Mary Douglas Honeycutt anywhere except on the society page, but such a pretty gal as that deserves a more prominent place. I will never forget how pretty she was the night she and Whyte, Jr., were graduated at 8118. I wish for her and the man of her choice a most happy married life. If he is mean to you, Mary Douglas, let me know and I will write him up.

Several of those who got di-vorces this week already have plans made to try it again.

I think the City Council did exactly right about stopping the practice of giving free water during the summer months. I never did see any sense in it and always voted against it when I was on the council. With the huge increase in population, such a practice would be more and more silly.

I am rather disappointed that Grenada county has not yet reached its Red Cross goal. Every week for the past year more money has been paid out here than an average cotton crop is worth.

The collapse of the Cain Creek bridge below Holcomb should contain some sort of warning about the tricky and dangerous Bogue bridge—already condemned, BUT still open, as was the other bridge that went down.

I wish to apologize to the county. I have published on several occasions that I paid the City TWICE as much for taxes as I did the county on the SAME property. I was wrong. I paid the City THREE times as much which, if I have to say it, is a hell of a note.

More and more people are appreciating the fact that this state will face the hideous problems of postwar reconstrictions during the next administration and that they should place a man of ability, honesty and EXPERIENCE in office. Not discounting the honesty and ability of either of his opponents, it is evident that Mike Conner possesses these two qualifications AND also experience, experience during an economic crisis such as we will probably have during the next four years. Be safe. Vote for Mike Conner, even if he does not slobber on the babies, yell at you across the street and play puny politics.

Our daughter, Dorothy, a high faluting student of journalism at America's best School of Journalism, that is the University of Missouri, says we observe only one journalistic maxim, that of fearlessly telling the truth. I do not think that was intended for a compliment.

Anyway, the lowbrows and the highbrows in increasing numbers pay for and read the GCW, and that ought to mean something. I am sure a regular journalist would rather be burned alive than put "I" in the paper anywhere.

The people of Grenada County have overbought their quota of bonds in the 2nd drive, and more bonds will be bought before the close of the drive on Saturday. And, why not? There is more idle money in Grenada than ever in its history. Idle money draws no interest.

Hon. W. A. Winter authorized us to place his name in the announcement column for Floater Representative from this and Montgomery county. He is a seasonel legislator, conservative and intelligent. His formal statement will, of necessity, appear next week.

We are omitting the article about the gallant action of Edgar Hall until next week so that his picture may appear with the article. He was cited by the U. S. Navy.

We invite members of the military personnel to come by and see us if they wish some personalized stationery. We have almost every kind of cut to "dress up" the stationery.

Paul H. Hill, Seaman Second Class who has finished at the Cook and Bakers School at Farragut, Idaho, and who will receive a higher rating on his return, was able to spend 2 of his 11 day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hill and the other 8 seeing the world from the train windows.

Graduates

News has reached here that John B. White, of Grenada, was graduated from Randolph Field, Texas, as a Flying Pilot.

LT. JOHN B. WHITE

He is the son of Mr. John E. White of Grenada.

Rat Campaign In City Of Grenada

For several months Grenada County Health Department has been interested in carrying on a Rat Campaign in Grenada. Due to the lack of poison this has been impossible. Through the cooperation of Mr. Douglas of the State Plant Board this poison has been made available.

The cost of such a campaign for the city will be approximately $600.00. Of this amount almost half has been pledged. To obtain the balance, any person or firm wishing to donate can contribute by calling the Health Office and stating the amount they will contribute.

It is the plan of the Health Department to put on such a campaign at regular intervals. Each campaign will be under the joint direction of the Health Department and the State Plant Board.

Poison will be placed at every home and business establishment in the city in one day. In this way a large number of rats can be killed. The poison is not dangerous to children or pets and will kill only rats.

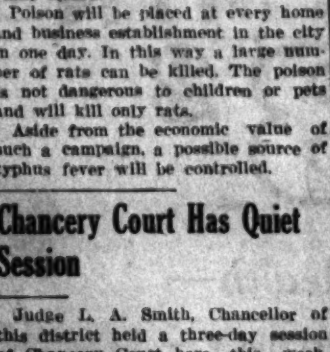
Aside from the economic value of such a campaign, a possible source of typhus fever will be controlled.

Chancery Court Has Quiet Session

Judge L. A. Smith, Chancellor of this district held a three-day session of Chancery Court here this week, hearing less than the usual number of divorce suits (maybe the government hand-outs had something to do with it), and attended to routine estate and administrative matters. Pastes to several pending divorce suits kissed and made up on the eve of legal hearings, and we hope they stick.

Wins Distinguished Flying Cross

1st. Lt. William Ed McCormick, one of the "McCormick twins" of Grenada, son of Mrs. Nan McCormick, has received the Distinguished Flying Cross—the highest honor given to members of the Army Air Corps, according to a letter, dated April 14, wherein Ed, with characteristic modesty, merely mentioned this outstanding honor without mentioning any details of his actions that earning the honor.



1ST. LT. WM. ED McCORMICK

It is generally known that he was Navigator on a Flying Fortress in the South Pacific since last October, but he is with a Ferrying Command now.

Statement From Mr. L. P. Horton

To the Voters of District One:

Eight years ago when you so kindly elected me Supervisor, I promised you I was going to do my very best to make you a good one. To fulfill that promise I have devoted my entire time to the duties of the office—something that few, if any, other Supervisor in the State are doing. The results of my efforts are a matter of record in the court house. When I went in office in January, 1936, Grenada County owed $480,200.00. Today she owes $301,132.25, making $188,067.75 of that indebtedness paid. In 1936 millage in the City proper was 32.25—today it 22. Outside the City taxes were 40.25 mills—today they 32. I have put more gravel on the roads of Beat One than all the Supervisors combined in the seventy years of the County's history without issuing one dollar in bonds. Every success in life is first a success in thought. My ambition has been, is, and will continue to be to see Grenada County free of debt and able to pay cash for what it has to have. If continued in office, I will work to achieve this. I sincerely believe in the County supporting the Library to the limit of its ability as, frankly, that does as much toward shaping a child's mind as anything outside a church. It is much better to spend money for the prevention of crime than for the prosecution of some wayward youth who, maybe, never had a chance.

I have tried to cooperate with the City whenever I could do so without denying the County the use of the machinery. I am absolutly against raising taxes. The government is taxing people out of money needed for food and certainly it is no time for City, County, or State taxing bodies to knife the people. Every courtesy has been shown the people that I could possibly show while, at the same time, trying to protect the interest of the County as a whole. I believe the physicians and the mail carriers of Grenada will say that I have tried to make life a little easier for them by looking after the roads over which they had to travel. Again thanking you for your past confidence and assuring you again that I will do my best if re-elected, I am

Very sincerly,
L. P. HORTON.

87th Dig Deep In Pockets For Red Cross Fund

Soldiers who dig in foxholes to save their lives, know full well the benefit derived from digging into their pockets for the American Red Cross, which is always on hand when needed most—and the men of the 87th Division are no exception.

The "Acorn" Division joining the nation-wide Red Cross Fund Campaign with the greatest effort ever made by a new military unit, has donated nearly $10,000 to the drive—and in so doing have done a great deal more than just their share towards winning the war.

Maj. General P. W. Clarkson, Division Commander, who served as honorary chairman of the drive, paid tribute to the work of the Red Cross, and complimented his troops on the fine showing which they have made.

H. J. C. Choir To Sing At Methodist Church

The Holmes Junior College Choir, under the direction of Miss Martha McKie, will present a concert of sacred music at the Methodist Church on Easter Sunday evening at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited to hear these young men and women.

So many people have renewed and we have had so many new subscribers that we are hopelessly snarled up in mentioning them. We have added 80 new ones since March 27th.

"Baby Division" Passed In Review

To the tunes of World War I, the "Baby Division" of World War II passed in review at Camp McCain Saturday afternoon before its commander Maj. Gen. P. W. Clarkson.

Marital music blended with the measured, determined tread of thousands upon thousands of marching feet as the 87th Infantry Division, the "Acorns" of the Mid-South, defying leaden clouds which threatened rain at any moment, paraded before hundreds of invited guests who were witnessing the first review of this combat unit since its activation December 15, 1942.

This great crowd of visitors, which included high ranking Army officials, civic leaders from neighboring communities, and veterans of the old 87th of the first World War, were visibly impressed by the rapid progress which these teen-age soldiers have made since their arrival at Camp McCain.

An additional bit of military color was added to the day's ceremony by the unexpected arrival of Maj. Gen. Paul Ranson, acting commander of the Third Corps, with Col. L. B. Kelser, Third Corps Chief of Staff.

Hours before the review began the tiers of seats erected for the occasion were filled with spectators who from their vantage point could watch the seemingly unending columns of troops converging on the drill field in step to the blaring tunes of the Drum and Bugle Corps.

Armored reconnaissance cars, with anti-aircraft weapons and light machine-guns pointing skyward, led the official party on to the drill field as General Clarkson made a preliminary inspection of his troops.

The 87th's two bands, the Infantry and Artillery, combined with the Drum and Bugle Corps, making a unit of 160 pieces, led the marching men past the reviewing stand as Regimental colors dipped low in tribute to their General, who only two short months ago greeted them as raw recruits.

The review itself was one of the largest military spectacles ever witnessed in the Mid-South. Yet despite the size and number of troops in formation it was accomplished with a precision which was praised by General Clarkson, who following the ceremony stated:

"The spirit displayed here today leaves no doubt in my mind as to the outcome of any battle in which this Division may participate."

The article concerning this engagement appears on the society page.

E. G. Stockard Buried At Yokena Last Wednesday

Mr. Erskine George Stockard died in Grenada Hospital Tuesday morning, April 13, 1943, following a fall sustained Monday.

He was the son of Rev. Alexander C. and Mrs. Mary Larkin Stockard and was born in Waverley, Tenn., on October 4, 1869. He was a graduate of Waverly College. On December 3, 1906, he and Miss Nellie Brown were married. He has been a citizen of Grenada for a number of years and until the day before his death, he was actively engaged in the timber business. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. He was courteous and kindly in his social dealings, and strictly honest in business.

T. J. Khater, C. L. Wright, Howard Hullum, Claud Stevens, C. B. Head, and C. B. Robinson served as pallbearers when he was buried at Yokena, Mississippi, where Rev. W. F. Mansell conducted the funeral rites.

Surviving him are his widow; four daughters, Misses Margaret, Evelyn, and Nellie Patricia, of Grenada, and Mrs. P. T. Hullum, of Yokena; and three sons, E. G., of Germania, Miss., Adrian E. of Maryland, and C. Clyde, of Savannah, Tenn. Two brothers, J. H. and Lucien Stockard, of Waverly, Tenn., also survive.

To the bereaved ones, we extend our sympathy.

$19,587.34 Contributed To War Fund at Camp McCain

The final results of the War Fund Campaign at Camp McCain show that $19,587.34 was contributed to the Red Cross. Major Norman E. Youngblood, Executive War Fund Chairman, reported to Colonel Ira E. Ryder, Post Commander, that donations totaling $9,757.66 were given by non-division units. The 87th Infantry Division, commanded by Major General P. W. Clarkson, contributed $9,829.68.

The most amazing fact is that enlisted men throughout the Camp gave more than $14,000, although they were not solicited for funds this year. Commissioned officers contributed more than $5,000 and civilians added $461.51 to bring the total to $19,587.34.

Mrs. and Miss Thomas Have Narrow Escape At Bridge

Mrs. Ruthie Thomas and her daughterter, Miss Elizabeth, narrowly escaped serious injury if not death Tuesday afternoon when 55-year-old steel span over Cain Creek just below Holcomb on No. 7 Highway suddenly collapsed as the Thomas car was awaiting clearance of a stalled truck from the western bridge head.

As the bridge collapsed a steel member of the bridge structure pinioned the car safely to the floor of the bridge, then resting at a 45 degree angle. Wrecking crews from Oliver-Lilly in Grenada and Delta Chevrolet Co. in Greenwood found it necessary to use ascetelyne torches to free the car which, remarkally, received little injury beyond the smashing of the steel top. Not a glass was broken, it is said. The occupants of the car received minor scratches only, we understand.

This bridge was built a hundred or more feet upstream from its present location in 1888 and served the people going from the area in and around what is now Holcomb, the people from north of the River who used the "upper" ferry (located on the Terrell old place) called Tuscahoma Ferry, and the people from further eastward who were enroute to the then prosperous town of Parsons. When No. 7 State Highway was extended in 1927-1928 from Holcomb to Greenwood, the bridge was moved to the present site of its tangled, twisted, useless wreckage. In the past there was some controversy between the county supervisors and the State Highway Department as to the ownership of the notorlously dangerous span, each disclaiming ownership. Several years ago, the writer recalls, the bridge was condemned as dangerous by the county board of supervisors. Since then, however, it has carried the heaviest of loads, and, strange to say, collapsed when a Mercury car was resting on its western edge.

Camp and Hospital Service Council Being Organized

The organization of a Camp and Hospital Service Council for Camp McCain, the Columbus, Greenwood and Greenville Flying Schools is under way according to Mr. William V. Alesi, Red Cross Field Director, who was appointed Council Secretary.

The Council will serve as a coordinating agency in furnishing artices and services not provided by the Army for able-bodied and convalescent Military Personnel.

Because of its unique position in being the only civilian organization to keep all patriotic groups that want to do something for the members of the Armed Forces informed of those articles and services desired by Commanding Officers. In this way duplication and waste of effort can be eliminated.

Twenty-one Red Cross Chapters in Northern Mississippi are participating in the formation of the Council. Each Chapter will invite business and professional groups, civic and fraternal organizations, churches and labor unions to become members of their committees. The immediate need is for equipping company day rooms for the relaxation of the soldiers after a hard day's work. The Committee will give all patriatic people who wish to do something for the servicemen a chance to do so.

Among the officers that attended the meeting were Major General Percy W. Clarkson, Commanding General, 87th Inf. Division; Colonel R. C. Throckmorton, Chief of Staff; Lt. Col. Emil Brown, acting as Post Commander in the temporary absence of Col. Ira E. Ryder; Col. Daniel C. Campbell, Camp Surgeon; Lt. Col. Jules Mallay, Executive Officer and Lt. Col. Armstrong, Post Surgeon, both of the Greenville Army Flying School; Captain Robert M. Spraus, Post Special Service Officer, and Captain Eli J. Paris, Special Service Officer, 87th Infantry Division.

General Clarkson declared that "the men can get along on very little if they have to, but that it would be of great benefit to them if they could have a newly furnished living room where they can meet or write home or play games or just relax."

The following officers were elected:

Mr. Leland Pryor, Chairman, Calhoun Chapter; Mrs. H. M. Trice, Vice-Chairman, Sunflower Chapter; Mrs. Sallie S. Willie, Treasurer, Coahoma; Mr. Wm. V. Alesi, Council Secretary, Camp McCain.

Don't Forget The Old Customers

Some of our businessmen, we are told, have become somewhat neglectful of the nickels and dimes of their old customers to catch these dollars from our temporary inhabitants. They should not forget that the nickels and dimes of the folks here at home were the means of establishing them in business and the means of keeping them going and WILL BE the means of keeping them going after all of this "easy" money has vanished.

This is a period of scarcity of merchandise. The wise merchant will be just as courteous in selling rationed goods as he was in selling goods in normal times, for the time will come when the buyer won't be rationed and when he will remember the merchant who DID treat him right during the present era.

It is the policy of the Grenada County Weekly to stick to those who stuck to us, to those who patronized us when we were struggling to get a toehold and to those who, in normal times, helped us make some little progress; but at the same time get all of this "easy" money we can—always, however, giving preference and priority to our old customers who will be here when all of this temporary boom has vanished.

Draft Exemptions In Government Service

Recent investigations by a committee in Congress have developed the fact that nearly a million men of draft age are being deferred because they hold government positions. This has aroused the country's indignation and, ere long, something is going to be done about it.

I can see no more reason why a man who pecks on a government typewriter should be deferred than for the deferment of a man who pecks on a bank's typewriter or a saloon's typewriter. If comptometer operators of the government machines are exempted, then the comptometer operator in the bank or the wholesale company should also be exempt.

I am sure that, if you look about you, you will see cases right here in Grenada where apparently healthy young men are working for the government and are not in the armed services.

I think the government should clean out its own offices, bureaus and commissions and send the young men in them to the army BEFORE the young men with children are sent to the army.

"Pass In Review"

The infant division, the 87th, of the 2nd Army, passed in review before its commanding officers and civilian guests last Saturday afternoon.

The "baby" has made fine progress in the few short weeks since it was born. All babies have to crawl before they walk. Only those who have been in the army know the tedious and monotonous details necessary in making a soldier of a raw recruit. Only those who have been in the army know that, like a convoy at sea, the pace and the progress of the squad, the platoon, the company, the regiment and the division, are those of the slowest unit.

This is no apology for the review, for it was a fine one to have been put on by men who, a few weeks ago were clerking, jerking sodas, going to school or engaged in myriads of other civilian pursuits; but it is only an explanation to those who expected perfection in too short a time, and to those who think the making of a soldier consists of taking off civilian clothes and donning military uniforms.

Watch the next review, and the next and the next, and note the great changes!!

Three Recent Heroes From This County

Three Grenada county young men have recently been honored by our government for meritorious service.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Huffman is in a hospital "somewhere," but sent his mother the Purple Heart medal which he received from an appreciative government. The Huffmans live in the hill section near Oxberry.

Ed McCormick, navigator on a Flying Fortress, notified his mother, Mrs. Nan McCormick, of Grenada, that he had received the Distinguished Flying Cross. Ed is a Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps in the Southwest Pacific area.

The actual citation of Edgar Nall, son of Mrs. Jack Keenum and the late Edgar Nall, is published in full elsewhere in this issue. This young navy man was born near Oxberry. His father served in the First World War.

Grenada County is proud not only of these three who have recently rendered exceptional service, but also of the thousands who fight or work at the tasks assigned them in this mighty effort to destroy the Axis.

Postwar Planning

The Mississippi Power and Light Company's industrial representative made a talk Wednesday to the members of the Board of Directors of the C. of C. outlining his tentative plan for cushioning the fall when the war is over. It is indeed timely to begin to plan for awakening from this hysterical dream which people in Grenada and other towns where camps or war babies are, for the higher they rise the faster they fall when the boom bursts. It is timely to prepare for war in time of peace, and equally timely to prepare for peace in time of war. The power company is to be commended for furnishing the leadership not only for Grenada but for other towns in its territory.

Certainly Camp McCain will not be a permanent post. The termites will eat the barracks, but there will remain roads, bridges, sewers and a disposal plant, as well as a water system that will last indefinitely. These facilities could be used in some useful way. The air base is likely to be maintained one way or another as an air base.

PFC Robert C. Christopher Receives Diploma

Pfc. Robert C. Christopher is the latest soldier student from Grenada, Miss., to receive his diploma as an expert airplane mechanic from Keesler Field's B-24 Liberator Bomber School—a unit of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command which is now graduating a new class of mechanics every day.

Private Christopher, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Christopher, of Grenada, is now ready for active line duty, servicing and maintaining the huge Liberator for long distance bombing forays against the Axis.

In the school he was given an intensive 17-week course which included training in V-25 maintenance, structures, hydraulic system, engines, electrical systems, fuel systems, instruments, propellers and inspection. He also was given an eight-day training period under simulated battle conditions, which he was required to apply what he had learned in school, how to camouflage his plane, and even to provide his own shelter against attack.

The Liberator is the largest bomber in active use by the Army Air Forces today.

HEALTH DEMANDS PROTECTIVE COOKERY

Nature put precious vitamins into raw food but — in your kitchen — twelve feet from your dining room table — the vitamins may be destroyed. That is the reason why you need protective cookery. Simply: Use little or no water—cook slowly—never boil violently—cook in covered utensils—do not stir.

AND PROTECTIVE STORAGE

. . . is essential too. Your electric refrigerator provides the five major classifications of cold to properly protect the vital vitamins in your food. Food spoilage now is sabotage.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become overtaxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MEETS FOR LAST OF 1942-43 PROGRAM

On Tuesday afternoon the charming reception rooms of the home of Mrs. G. F. Deaton was the scene of the last meeting of the 1942-43 program, adjourning until next September when the '43-44 program will begin.

The rooms were delightfully arranged for this occasion and the living room featured a lovely arrangement of purple Iris placed before a slender mirror and a low bowl of fragrant Marguerites pinks graced an occasional table. The dining table draped with a cut work embroidered cloth was centered by a silver container holding golden hued tulips interspersed by slender orchid hued Iris. This arrangement was a gift from Mrs. Glen Wiley.

Mrs. John Rundle, only member on the program, gave a splendid review of the book, "Our Free Minds" by Overstreet.

Mrs. J. B. Perry, Sr. president, presided and one of the most interesting reports was made by Mrs. Chas. C. Penn, who is club chairman for the Library which is sponsored by the Twentieth Century Club. She stated that over 3000 people have enjoyed our library the past year and many of the new citizens are now entering the library seeking good books to read and without exception these newcomers as well as Grenada citizens express their joy and appreciation at finding the great variety of reading material in the shelves at the library. Miss Elizabeth Jones, assisted by Miss Griffith, is librarian.

Following the program, Mrs. Deaton assisted by the co-hostess, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker served a lovely plate containing a strawberry sundae with cake and canapes.

Mrs. Fred White was the only non-member guest present.

EPISCOPAL Y. P. S. L.

The Young Peoples Service League of the Episcopal Church met April 18, at the home of Mrs. Norfleet Craig with Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Walter Doty as co-hostess. The meeting was a social one given in compliment to the league members for their worthwhile endeavors this year.

A number of guests shared the pleasures of the evening, at the close of which tasty refreshments were served.

Miss Nellie Quinn Hayden, member of the faculty as music teacher at Courtland, visited her sister, Mrs. J. C. Hathorn one day this week.

Mrs. H. G. Roberts, of Jackson, Miss. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sam Irby.

Because of their mother's (Mrs. John Emmons) illness Cpl. Archie Emmons, of Coast Guard, located at Washington, D. C. and Pfc. Blanton Emmons, of Fort Cronkhite, Calif., are at their home near Oxberry on furlough. Mrs. Emmons is reported as improved at Grenada Hospital.

Mrs. Laura Nell Merritt, of Jackson, is expected for this week end for a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. C. Penn. With her will be her room-mates Misses Lena Miller, Norma Clower and Laura Dubard.

Miss Helen Horton, of Belhaven College, Jackson, will spend the week-edn here with her parents.

Miss Camilla Smith of Woods Junior College is expected to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith at Hardy.

Mrs. W. A. Winter is in Jackson with her cousin, Mrs. Dawson Winter, whose husband is critically ill.

It looks like it is going to rain, but there is very little I can do about it.

I believe Grandmaw Whitaker is getting sweeter and better looking.

I imagine the next city administration will do away with those useless traffic lights, but this administration seems to have its neck bowed.

A Resolution

Be it resolved by the members of the Grenada Lodge No. 32 F. & A. M. in lodge meeting duly assembled, as follows:

(1) That we hereby express our appreciation and our thanks to the members of the Bondholders Protective Committee, to wit: H. J. Ray, J. B. Perry, Sr., and L. J. Doak for their services, their splendid work and their cooperation with the said Grenada Lodge throughout the entire period of time in which the interest of the bondholders was in their hands and when they were charged with assisting both the bondholders and the Lodge in working out our mutual problems.

(2) That we hereby further express our appreciation and thanks to the said H. J. Ray for his services in acting as trustee for the bondholders and in exchanging the refunding bonds for the original bonds.

(3) That we hereby express our appreciation and thanks to all of the original bondholders for their forebearance and their cooperation with us in working out a program which seemed best for all concerned at a time when we were unable to meet all of our financial obligations due to circumstances which none of us could control.

(4) That we hereby express our gratitude to all who had a part in assisting the Lodge in getting back on a solvent basis, and with the building now completely in the hands of the Lodge for the first time in many years and with our indebtedness being rapidly paid we deem it appropriate to express our sentiments in the above manner.

Marshall Perry,
Worshipful Master,
E. M. Whitaker,
Secretary.

The foregoing resolution was adopted by unanimous vote by the Grenada Lodge No. 31 F. & A. M. at its regular meeting on April 12, 1943.

E. M. Whitaker,
Secretary.

Holmes Junior College News

Holmes Junior College is making preparations for the largest summer school enrollment it has had in the history of the school. In the regular college and high school department, four three week terms are being offered, beginning May 31 to August 20, allowing the college students to secure fifteen semester hours of credit, or if in high school, three new units.

The Concentrated Business Training Course: This course is designed for those students who want to take business training courses only and to finish as quickly as possible. $2000 in new equipment was added to this department last year in order to serve in an efficient way as many students as desire to take this training at a reasonable cost to them. Typing, shorthand, accounting, filing, and office machines are the courses offered during the summer terms.

For further information write R. M. Branch, President, Holmes Junior College, Goodman, Miss.

Red Cross collections on the $12,200.00 goal are to date only $11,082.72. Fah it over.

Camp McCain News

Last week, on Saturday, the 87th Infantry Divison, the "Acorn" Division filed by in its entire strength to render homage to its Division Commander, Maj. Gen. P. W. Clarkson and its Assistant Division Commander, Brig. Gen. John L. McKee. The visiting General hoored was Maj. Gen. Paul Ranson, acting Third Corps Commander, Brig. Gen. Russell G. Barlow also reviewed the division.

The review began at about three o'clock in the afternoon. The townspeople were invited, aand many from Grenada and nearby towns responded. Neatly uniformed and white-gloved M. P.'s were stationed at frequent intervals to direct traffic, which was very heavy.

The review itself was perfectly executed. The entire Division lined up facing the Reviewing stand and remained at attention while the units marched out one by one.

We left camp at five, but the crowd of visitors was so heavy that they were still lined up when we left.

Saturday night some of the "high-ups" attended the dance at the Officers' Club, among them we saw Gen. Clarkson, and Col. Trockmorton.

At that dance we noticed a number of Army wives that we had neved seen before. They congregate from all over for the big Saturday dances, Calhoun City, Winona, even from Jackson.

The main topic of discussion in the Powder Room is "Where can I find a room somewhere nearer?" The answer is usually negative, of course.

The Service Dance last Friday night was a success, as usual, but what is this we hear about a new bride being there? Just celebrating a little, we guess, until her Lt. husband sends for her.

This is week-old news but we had to skip the column last week, as office work was piling up.

The U. S. Engineers gave a lovely party for Lt. Col. John C. Wade and his family and for Mr. George Vinsant and his family at the Officers Club at the Air Base last Tuesday week. All of the employees of the government who had worked with the Colonel and Mr. Vinsant, the assistant Project Manager, presented their wives with lovely rose comforters of down. Mrs. Wade was also presented with a beautiful silver tray and ice cooler and a set of painted glasses, (someone evidently thought the Wades indulged). The Vincents were also presented a fine pipe. Light refreshments were served.

Lt. Col. Wade left this Tuesday to report to Camp Claiborne. He is to be attached to Engineer Headquarters, Communications Zone.

Maj. Dahlman, who replaced Col. Wade as Area Engineer is also from the U. of Wisconsin. The Badgers are about to take over the camp.

News of the week is that Dorothy Whitaker, one of the first founders of the camp, arrived in Grenada Wednesday noon for a few days vacation. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi sorority, and a very active Journalism student.

Old Blackeyed Susan

I'm happy today on account of SUSAN regaining her freedom after having been cramped, handicapped and restricted for the past few months.

SUSAN has been very docile and meek and not a word of criticism has she spoken and she was perfectly willing to go on and do her part in the march to victory but she'll be in a position to do more now that she is free from restraint.

Loved By All That Know Her

Yes she is loved by all that have made her acquaintance and most people appreciate the sphere she holds in their lives. I made her acquaintance early in life and consequently have always had a warm affection for her. She is sometime called a Blackeyed Pea but she is good by any name provided the seasoning is right.

She Should Be Greasy

To be really fit for a king, she should be boiled in an old fashion black pot and when simmered down to the eating stage, there should be a thin skimming of grease on top. A couple of slices of onion and a good size hunk of corn bread put the finishing touch to a real meal.

He Stuck Her With A Fork

One time when I was a boy, we had company for supper and I remember he wore a black derby with a long handle-bar mustache and patent leather shoes buttoned up the side and he was such a perfect gentleman that in eating peas, he'd stick his fork thru two at a time. During supper a strong gust of wind blew the coal oil lamp out and colored auntie grabbed a paper taper and lit the lamp right quick and lo and behold our company had the plate up to his mouth and was slurping the peas down just like we used to slurp our coffee out of the saucer before we got into society. YES FOLKS, WE HAVE BLACK EYE PEAS TODAY. No points required. COME GET THEM.

The headaches and the heartaches of reconstruction will set in surely some time during the administration of the next governor. The BEST man MAY prove powerless to cope with the enormous problems. But we should take as few chances as possible, and that will be by voting for a man possessing not only honor and integrity but also one possessing that priceless trait—EXPERIENCE. Mike Conner is the only one who fits that suit.

"Pass in Review," he said; and the 87th Division started in motion. The soldiers, most of whom wore speckled ties and silk socks a few weeks ago, showed up well.

Still the candidates come. It looks like there will never be a necessity to draft anyone for public office.

In my opinion the federal government is the greatest of all wasters of manpower.

The overseer and I traveled about six hundred miles, spent sixty or seventy dollars and caught about five measley croakers down on the coast last week end. In addition I almost had the flu and shivvered and shook most of the time. From now on I am going to stay at home.

John, Wing's uncle, is back for a visit. For all I know he may have been back to China.

Paul Phillips, Grenada county's efficient Fire Warden, came in and paid his dues recently.

Henry Dunn, gravel baron of Beat Five, also chipped in to help make up for the money I wasted on those five croakers.

Grenada has escaped another week. It has not, up until 9 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, April 21, 1943, had TWO fires at the SAME time.

Aint they sweet.

William L. Bailey has not only changed his location, but has added two stripes to his sleeve, making him a Corporal.

Lt. Colonel John C. Wade, the Area Engineer of both the camp and the airbase, left Monday for a new post at a camp near Alexandria, Louisiana. I never knew a finer man, or one who measured up to the term, "officer and gentleman," more completely. Mrs. Wade and their lovely daughter, Cynthia will remain in Grenada for a while.

The Victory gardeners certainly have got off to a helluva start with all these frosts in April.

Red Briscoe has bought one of these here gasoline mules.

The few Gentiles privileged to attend the Passover ceremony and feast at Camp McCain Monday night were greatly impressed with the dignity of the services, as well as with the fine cooking of fine food.

At one point in the Passover ceremony, the door is opened and the Savior is invited to enter. It is my guess that if the Savior made an entrance, everybody else would have made an exodus.

Aint they sweet.

Help in the rat campaign. The rats of the United States eat as much as 2,000,000 people—my estimate.

Those who think the war will soon be over are merely wishful thinkers. We have just about begin to stop losing the war.

We are happy to add Mrs. Leon Heath to our mailing list. One by one, they come.

Everyone in politics is holding his breath until it is found out who is going to run for Constable in Beat One.

The GCW is prepared with cuts of all sorts of military emblems to print almost any variety of personal military stationery.

For Sale: 1 hp. Westinghouse, 3 phase motor, guarranteed, for $50.00 cash money.

Bert Smith, Beat One's constable, and an aspirant to Pritch Horton's seat, recently subscribed.

We faithfully give all kinds of desired publicity to the camp, and the camp folks just as faithfully carry most of their printing—which we can do—elsewhere. That's not fair, gentlemen of the jury.

The newspapers both large and small, are harder hit by the conditions in this era than are any other essential business.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Winner Take All!

There is one stark and simple fact about war which you had better get straight . . . and quickly, too

THERE IS NO SECOND PLACE IN A WAR — IT'S EITHER WIN OR LOSE!

This war is being fought for tremendous stakes . . .

. . . for your life and your liberty.

. . . for your church and your children.

. . . for your freedom and your future.

And it's WINNER TAKE ALL. Don't forget that for a minute.

The winner will dictate whether tomorrow you shall be a free citizen of a free world, or a helpless serf to a "master race."

The winner will dictate whether you shall live and prosper under the Four Freedoms, or toil hopelessly in the darkness of a "New Order."

The winner will dictate . . . because the winner takes all.

The winner takes all. All you own, all you hold dear.

The winner is being decided right now . . . today . . . this very minute . . . on battlefields all over the world. Will you stand idly by . . . or throw all your weight on our side?

The weight of mighty tanks and planes. The weight of thousands of guns and millions of shells. The weight of billions of dollars . . . 13 billions your country asks you to lend during this Drive.

Your country wants to borrow every idle dollar you have—every dollar except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

You'll have to give up some luxury or comfort which was dear to your heart. You'll have to postpone some pleasure which you had been eagerly anticipating.

But what of it?

Your sons and brothers and husbands are dying out there . . . fighting your fight. Surely it is no sacrifice to lend your dollars while they are giving their lives.

They need your help. They need the weapons your money can buy. If one of the War Loan volunteers calls on you . . . greet him with open pocketbook. Remember, Uncle Sam's goal is 13 billion dollars in April.

Don't wait to be asked. Go to your nearest bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office or issuing agency and lay your money on the line. Remember, it's an investment you're making — an investment that pays a good return and insures a happier future for you and your loved ones.

So lend up to the limit.

You'll sleep better for it.

Showing the Panel Type of Slip Cover

IN EVERY price range today there are handsome flowered materials for slip covers. The patterns are designed so that a motif may be centered in each part of a chair to make a panel. This is not difficult to do if you cut straight pieces first according to the widest and longest measurement of the part to be covered, plus one inch at all seams and four inches for a seat tuck-in.

Pin and trim to fit, as shown. Seams that are to be sewn without welting are pinned and basted from the wrong side. Unpin seams where welting is to be used. Baste the welting to the right side of the seam edge, then baste the seam. A right-toe cording foot is best for welted seams.

A commercial traveler put up for the night at a small country inn. In the breakfast room the following morning he was asked by the landlord how he had enjoyed the cornet playing in the next bedroom during the night.

"Enjoyed it!" was the reply. "I should think not, indeed! Why, I spent half the night pounding on the wall to make that cornet player stop."

"I'm afraid there's been a misunderstanding," said the landlord, stiffly. "The cornet player told me that the person in the next room applauded so heartily that he played every piece he knew five times over."

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

A single 10-ton pontoon bridge eats up 2500 pounds of rubber and 2.01 pounds are used for each roll of adhesive plaster made for the Army's medical corps.
We've heard a lot about tire rationing lately, but the practice would become more common if every driver realized that equalizing wear on all tires can increase tread mileage as much as 50%.
With conservation in mind keep your rubber goods in a cool, dark place, preferably away from direct heat, or exposure to sunlight, oil and grease.
To make the bullet-sealing gasoline tanks of a Flying Fortress requires 1600 pounds of rubber.
Parthenium Argentatum is what botanists call Guayule (pronounced Y-Yu-lay) a scrawny desert shrub of Central America and Southwest U.S. which is being developed for its rubber content.

Early Parachute Troops

Papers found in Boston, U. S. A., show that Benjamin Franklin suggested the idea of a "parachute army." Writing in 1784, he said 8,000 balloons, each carrying two soldiers—16,000 in all—could do an "infinite deal of mischief before a force could be brought to repel them."

Women in Great Farm Mobilization

Taking Over Jobs Of Fighting Kin

Food is becoming more than ever "woman's business."

In 1943 she not only buys it and prepares it for her family.

She's growing it and harvesting it, as well!

From the Atlantic to the Pacific come reports of a highly successful feminine occupation of the land. Women are handling tractors, driving farm trucks, running combines and other machines, and even riding the range on some of the West's bread grazing acres.

They're taking over the jobs of husbands and brothers in the armed forces, and of the thousands of hired workers also lost to Uncle Sam's army and navy and industrial plants.

Back in the days of World War I women "farmerettes" did their part, too, but agriculture has changed since 1917. Today's farm is a highly mechanized plant, with tractors numbering about 1,800,000 as compared with the 85,000 of 25 years ago. Motor trucks in operation have jumped from around 248,000 to close to 2,000,000. These and many other mechanical aids to the farmer require trained operators and repairmen, even though they are releasing a lot of manpower.

Women are being prepared for both jobs, and thousands are already busy keeping the farm machinery rolling. Vocational agriculture classes in the schools and instruction offered by farm implement companies have both contributed to providing skilled feminine mechanics.

Colleges and universities, as well as high schools, are giving courses in agriculture for the girls. To increase their interest in farm work, the University of California at Los Angeles has instituted a series of farm festivals.

Manpower experts estimate that 70 per cent more women were doing farm work in 1942 than in 1940.

Good Care Assures More Young Lambs

Saving a high percentage of the new lamb crop and getting them ready for an early market is one of the important wartime jobs of the American farmer, according to Dale C. Snodgrass, animal husbandry extension specialist of North Carolina State college.

By following a few simple, well-established practices, the sheepman can be sure of success with his young animals. Snodgrass lists some of these practices as follows:

Have the ewes in a good, strong, thrifty condition before lambing, and be sure that the flock is securely separated from other stock, especially hogs.

Do not disturb a ewe at lambing time, unless she needs help, but be sure to stay on the job. Carelessness may mean the loss of a lamb. See that the young lamb nurses and does not become chilled. Should the ewe disown her lamb, try to get her to claim it.

Gradually increase the feed given to the ewe after the lamb is about one week old to stimulate the flow of milk. During lambing time, the ewe should be housed at night and during bad weather.

If a new-born lamb becomes chilled, take it to a warm room and put it in warm water up to its neck. After the young animal is warm, take it out of the water and dry it thoroughly before placing it with the ewe in a warm dry place.

Conserving Fuel

It is clear that farmers have a vital stake in the conservation of gasoline and fuel oil. If supplies run too low, not only will production and distribution of essential food and fiber be hindered, but the ability of many farmers to continue operation will be endangered.

Farmers can be assured the amounts of gasoline and fuel oil which they actually need for productive uses and heating. Any uses beyond these must be eliminated.

FDR Tightens Living Cost Controls; Allies Push All-Tunisia Offensives As Rommel Speeds Retreat Northward; Draftees Status Altered in New Plan

ANTI-INFLATION: 'Hold the Line'

President Roosevelt's "hold the line" anti-inflation order served blunt notice on all special economic groups that competition for higher prices and wages must end, because the resulting conflict would not only result in inflation but "breed disunity when unity is essential."

Banning further wage increases except to correct substandard living conditions virtually freezing employees to their present jobs and extending price controls to all cost-of-living commodities, the President's order centered a four-pronged attack on inflation. The order provided:

1—No further wage increases beyond the Little Steel formula of 15 per cent over rates on January 1, 1942; 2—Immediate ceilings on all commodities affecting the cost of living; 3—No hiring of new employees by employers, except in accordance with War Manpower commission regulations, to prevent employment of workers at higher pay than they received in previous jobs; 4—Stabilization of rates of common carriers and public utilities.

DRAFT: Classes Reshuffled

As local draft boards speeded the reclassification of registrants, in accordance with new selective service regulations, the fathers of children born before September 14, 1942, found themselves the sole occupants of class 3-A. All other men of draft age were being placed in one of the following classes:

1-A—Subject to immediate induction; 2-A—Deferred because of occupation in activities directly supporting the war effort, or vital to the maintenance of civilian health and welfare; 2-B—Deferred because of occupation in war plants; 2-C or 3-C—Deferred because of essential agricultural work; 3-D—Deferred because their induction would cause extreme hardship to dependants; 4-F—Mentally, morally, or physically unfit for service.

PACIFIC FRONT: Air War Continues

Aerial warfare on the north and east extremities of the Pacific battle front provided for weeks the only activity in this theater.

In the north American army bombers escorted by fighters continued their daily assaults on Jap positions in the Aleutians, bombing Kiska and blasting Attu.

Largest scale action of all occurred near Guadalcanal, where American airmen destroyed 37 out of 98 Jap planes and bombers which attacked U. S. shipping. Americans lost seven of their own planes in the encounter.

U. S. NAVY: Billions for Building

Further evidence of the navy's determination to build itself into unmatched global power was seen in President Roosevelt's request of congress for a $24,551,070,000 appropriation for the fiscal year 1944—the largest amount ever sought for the nation's sea-fighting forces.

The President asked for $8,230,000,000 for new warships; $1,830,000,000 for maintenance and repair of ships and $3,478,000,000 for guns, ammunition and armament. While only $1,640,000,000 was requested for airplanes, a backlog of about $4,000,000,000 in orders will provide adequate numbers of fighting craft.

ADM. ERNEST J. KING
... more battle-wagons for him.

RUSSIA: Quiet on Donets

As reports had persisted that the Germans were moving many fresh divisions to the Russian front for a new offensive, the Red forces took the initiative in the Kharkov area and seized several favorable positions south of Izyum, thus widening the Soviet bridgehead on the south bank of the Donets river.

Following their failure at Izyum, the Germans were reported massing strength in the Balakleya sector.

A Moscow communique reported that quiet had again descended on the Smolensk front after a lightning Russian thrust that resulted in the capture of several strongly held villages northeast of the Axis stronghold.

Engagements were but a prelude to bigger movements, for both sides were massing their forces for new major actions once the spring-thawed ground became firm again.

TUNISIA: Fox in the Open

Rommel's retreating Afrika Korps had been faced by Allied armies on three sides after "The Fox" was uprooted from his El Akarit positions and chased into the open plains of Tunisia well north of Gabes.

The seriousness of the crisis for the Axis was reflected in Italian communiques which admitted that Italo-German forces were being steadily overpowered along the entire Tunisian front.

GEN. BERNARD MONTGOMERY

The long-hoped for junction of American and British forces had intensified Rommel's plight, for now General Montgomery's British Eighth army was not only pressing him from the south, but its advance units now joined directly with General Patton's Second American army corps were menacing his flanks from the east. To the north, General Anderson's British First army had moved to close off Rommel's movements for a possible union with the Axis forces of Gen. Von Arnim.

In routing Rommel at El Akarit, General Montgomery took the Nazis by surprise with a night attack that blazed its way forward under the screen of 500 cannon and scores of tanks and reinforced by hundreds of planes overhead. In the first break-through the Eighth army had gathered in 6,000 Axis prisoners.

As the battle picture became clearer, the contributions of General Patton's American forces emerged importantly. Prior to the historic junction with the British Eighth army after piercing the Axis armies' flanks, the Americans had held up most of Rommel's armored forces in the El Guettar region, weakening his defenses and making easier the task of the British at El Akarit.

BLOCK-BUSTERS: Work Well Done

The penetrating eyes of British reconnaissance cameras confirmed reports of RAF bomber pilots that "block-busters" have done their work well in laying waste industrial areas of Berlin.

Photographs taken after one recent raid disclosed that 30 important war factories had been destroyed or damaged. The devastation was concentrated mostly in areas south and southwest of the center of Hitler's capital, a report by the air ministry disclosed.

Railway repair shops, freight yards and the Templehof airfield were among objectives damaged.

HIGHLIGHTS ... in the week's news

NEW YORK: Secretary of Navy Frank Knox announced that salvage operations were progressing rapidly on the 83,000-ton former French liner Normandie, now named the La-Fayette, which burned and capsized at her pier here on February 9, 1942. He indicated that the vessel should be righted by midsummer. The giant liner is being refitted for naval service.

LONDON: A shipment of 10,000 American alarm clocks will be used to replace those worn out in Britain since the war started, it was announced by Hugh Dalton, president of the board of trade, in a statement to the house of commons after a member complained that coal miners were having a hard time waking up for their 1 a. m. shifts in British and Welsh collieries.

THE RISEN LORD

LESSON TEXT—John 20:1-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—He is risen.—Mark 16:6.

"Christ is living! My people shall know it. I shall preach about it again and again until they believe as I do." So exclaimed Dr. Dale of London when the glory of Christ's resurrection laid hold of him as never before. There began that day the custom of singing an Easter hymn in his church every Sunday morning.

Easter has come again, and it ought to make us glad to recall the resurrection power of Christianity in the midst of the world's awful sorrow and death. Easter should mean more to us than ever this year, if we believe in Christ. If we do not, why not rid ourselves of the dark garments of unbelief, and put on the bright and beautiful garment of faith in a living Christ. Let us be clad in His righteousness.

The first Easter Sunday had scarcely dawned when the faithful Mary came to the tomb. Finding the stone rolled away from its entrance she ran to find Peter and John. What they came and saw, and what—or rather who—she remained and saw, make up our interesting lesson.

I. Peter and John Saw the Empty Tomb (vv. 1-10).

Peter, though he had denied his Lord, was not sent away by his brethren. They knew his true heart, and evidently the gentle and loving John had taken him to his home. Mary knew where to find him. What a tender incidental indication of the Christian spirit of the brethren of Peter.

John and Peter ran to the tomb. The unusual news so stirred them that John the younger did not think to await the slower steps of Peter. He came first, but when he did he only looked in. Peter had no hesitation, but went right in. What he found there was most significant.

Here was twofold evidence that the body of our Lord had not been stolen. The burial clothes were there. They had not been carried off by a thief. Nor had they been snatched aside by a deceiver. They lay in order. There off to one side, carefully folded, was the head covering. Jesus was gone, but He had left in all the dignity and majesty of a triumphant Lord.

What they saw caused John to believe. It appears (v. 9) that they had not yet understood the clear teachings of the Old Testament regarding the death and resurrection of Christ. They were slow to believe. Let not any in our day, with its greater light, fail to believe.

Peter and John came and saw—and then "they went away again unto their own home." And so they missed seeing Christ Himself.

II. Mary Met the Risen Christ (vv. 11-17).

The tears of Mary were the genuine expression of a devoted heart, but they were nevertheless mistaken tears. The question of the angel reveals that fact. Why weep because His body was gone, when that was the very thing which should give her joy? Why weep over a dead Christ when He was alive?

How often our discernment is dimmed by tears and our judgment warped by sorrow. We look on the wrong side of our circumstances and see only a tangle of threads and blurred colors. On the other side God is weaving a pattern of beauty and blessing, which will be our joy through all eternity. Why not remember that now?

Blinded with tears and troubled in heart, Mary did not even recognize the Lord when He spoke to her. But our Lord looking into her soul and knowing that it was her very love for Him which made it hard for her to think of anything but His death, gave to this true-hearted woman the privilege of first seeing Him after His resurrection.

As He spoke her name, she knew Him. We recall that Jesus Himself had said that He was the Good Shepherd who "calleth his own sheep by name" (John 10:3-14).

He knows your name and mine, fellow Christian, and one day we too shall hear His voice even as Mary did on that day. She believed and worshiped. Let us follow her example this Easter day.

There is a danger that the observance of Easter may lose its real significance in the empty incidentals which the world would have us believe make the day. It is a holiday. There is thought of new clothes, of formal church attendance, of family gatherings, of flowers and feasting. They are all right in their proper place. But let us be sure that no adult fails to meet the risen Christ today, and let us be sure that the smallest child knows that this is more than the day of bunnies and candy eggs. They will rejoice in the knowledge that a victorious Christ lives to give them eternal life.

Let us really "keep the feast" this year, purging out the leaven of hypocrisy and dead works, and remembering Christ (see I Cor. 5:7, 8).

From an old French word "mes" derived from the Latin word "missus" meaning a course at a meal, comes the Army's name "mess" for its breakfast, dinner and supper. Favorite meal with the soldier is chicken dinner—his favorite cigarette, Camel. (Based on actual sales records from service men's own stores.) A carton of Camels, by the way, is a gift that's always welcome. And though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas Army men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. S., and to men in the Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard wherever they are.—Adv.

WE'LL Make IT 100% in MISSISSIPPI by Saturday, April, 24

MISSISSIPPI'S SECOND WAR LOAN QUOTA OF $25,310,000 WILL BE OUR EASTER GIFT TO OUR MEN IN SERVICE

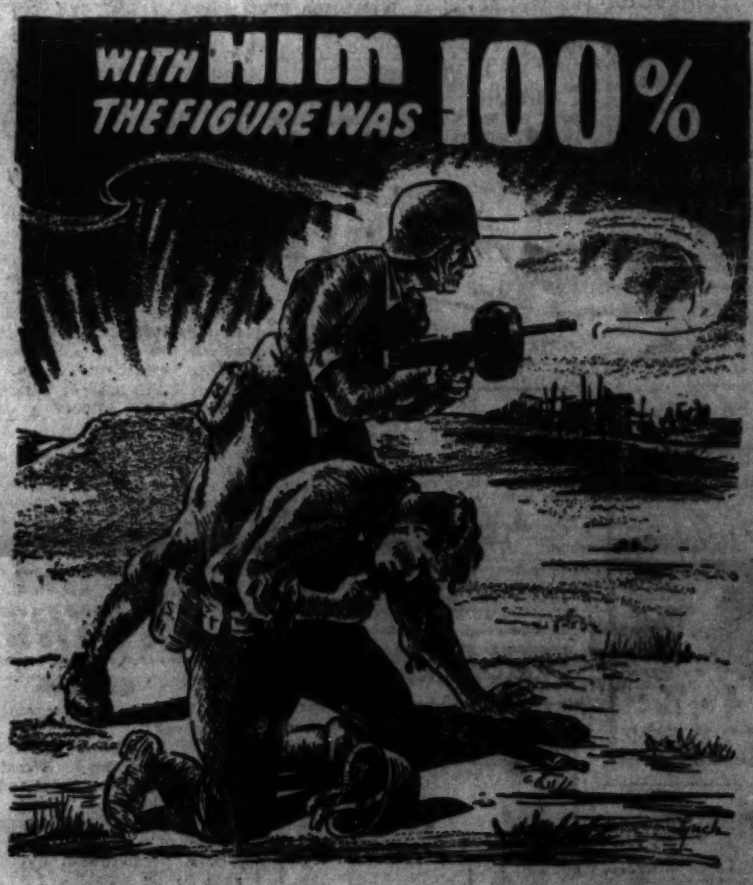
★SUNDAY, April 25th, will be EASTER SUNDAY in North Africa and in New Guinea just as it will be Easter Sunday here in Mississippi. Certainly there can be no finer Easter Greetings from us to our brave fighting men than to let them know we are backing them up 100 per cent with all our resources. The 2nd War Loan Drive officially ends April 30th — BUT IN MISSISSIPPI we've set Saturday, April 24th AS 100 PER CENT DAY — we don't want to dilly-dally with this job — we don't want any last-minute stuff — we want to DO OUR PART FOR OUR FIGHTING MEN — NOW!

You have done your bit —

NOW DO YOUR BEST!

★MOST EVERYONE has bought bonds — 10 per cent or so — during the past year. With the war getting tougher every day — with constantly increasing needs by our fighting forces for more planes, more ships, more guns, more ammunition — "our bit" IS NOT ENOUGH!

★NOW, WE MUST DO OUR BEST — that means putting every penny over actual living necessities INTO GOVERNMENT SECURITIES between now and April 24th. Every man and woman on the home front owes this to every man on the fighting front. Certainly when they are GIVING their lives — we can do NO less than LEND our money. And we are only asked to LEND it — to put it in the best investments in the world!



He didn't lie in his fox-hole and figure out how much of his time, his heart and his life-blood he could "afford" to give his country. The only percentage HE knew was the one that was against him . . . and his fellow-fighters in the jungles, on the deserts, awash on the death-ridden seas.

Keep him in mind when you move your idle dollars into action in the Second War Loan. Dig every spare penny out of its resting-place — put it into action — make it work for you with safety and profit, then you will have the grand satisfaction of KNOWING that you are DOING YOUR LEVEL BEST! Come clean with HIM, your country, and YOURSELF.
